WEST RIDING COUNTY

YOUNG CHILDREN'S ATTENDANCE

AT SCHOOL.

THE ROTHWELL MEMBER SUP-

PORTS AN AMENDMENT.

At a meeting of the above authority held at Walsford on Wednesday last the attendance of children under five years of age again came forward for discussion.

On behalf of the Education Committee,

Alderman Dunn moved—That for the present provision be made in new buildings for children under five years of age.

He showed that the education of the children in the West Riding was costing the county £700,000 a year. As 11 per cent of them were under five years of age, it followed that the West Riding was spending something like £80,000 in maintaining what was "unnecessary."

If they were to have nurseries for 500 children, it would cost £200,000 for the present school. This money might well be spent on higher education, which was a "safer" investment.

Mr. J. H. Wilson, in opposing the amendment, expressed the opinion that the years between one and five were the most important in a child's life. If children between these years were not educated, the effect on the child would be disastrous. He did not think they ought to consider the question from the point of view of the parent who had to pay for the child, but from the point of view of the child. If there was over-pressure on the system, it would be disastrous. He thought the question should be decided on the basis of the child's welfare, and not on the basis of the parent's pocket. He STOUTON UNITED v. HAIGHT CLARENCE.

This match, which took place at Haigh Park, Stouton, on Saturday afternoon, aroused much interest, in view of the fact that the Haigh club are making a strong bid for the League Cup, and the Stouton club are the only club to claim points from this season. Stouton descended for the first time after the kick-off. They soon, however, made great headway, and G. Hayes scored, the result of a hot engagement near the goal. Haigh were not able to follow Stouton. Clarence passed well, but Stouton

EDITOR'S LETTER BOX.

[BRIEF NOTES, NOTICES, QUERIES AND GOSPEL CONTRIBUTED BY OUR READERS.]

I was glad to see your Letter Box column last week, Mr. Editor, that there were others of the same opinion as myself in regard to the editorial of the ROTHWELL WESLEYAN SCHOOLS. When a gala programme was as placed before the public last year and was well received, it was therefore adopted as the Ward candidate.

No other name than that of Mr. Sg. Dobson, the retiring member for Oulton was put to the meeting as likely to represent the Oulton

Ward and he was unanimously adopted as candidate.

As there are kindred Associations at Oulton and Louthsome no action was taken by the Association in relation to the Wards the interests of which the respective Association seek themselves to promote.

KIPPAX PARISH CHURCH
ROTHWELL, WHITE RO

In the third round of the Bothwell Cup Competition the above test match took place at Kippax on Saturday afternoon last. A good attendance of spectators was present. The sudden thaw the ground was in a condition and really unfit for so close an engagement. Bradley kicked off and the Churchmen soon attacked from a centre by Hopkinson, who was off side pending Blyden, the other by Mr. Barlow, who scored for the home team after the only break in progress a few minutes after the start of the match. Fox sent in a shot which was blocked by a corner. Boyes cleared with his head. After Mahon and Bratley had fruitless attempts to break the play was transferred into the visitors' half when Barlow added a second goal with a shot from the edge of the homesters, heading the ball into the net after a corner kick. Matters no very serious for the Roses, who practically done nothing correct, the especially being very weak. Smart, conspicuous with some good kicking for and the Rothwell goal looked as though going to be again penetrated when finely to the rescue. During a bout Harrison robbed his side of a chance by being in an off-side position well who were now pulling together, unopposed on the last.

ROTHWELL WESLEYAN SUNDAY

SCHOOL UNION.

AN EXPERIMENT ON METHODS OF

TEACHING.

It was a big day in connection with the above Sunday School Union on Friday last, the day upon which for years the various Sunday Schools in the Union have met to consider for mutual improvement and consideration of what methods are best to secure the most successful Sunday School work.

This year the influence of Mr. W.

Stephenson, one of the Rothwell Sunday School representatives, the services were secured by Mr. Thomas Harding, of London, one of the foremost educationalists of the Connection. Mr. Harding is admitted to be an expert in educational work and an authority of high standing with regard to school organization and management. For many years he was associated with the educational work of the late Matthew Arnold, and for his own distinguished service to the State as Inspector of Schools he received the rare and coveted honour of the Imperial Service Order. Since his retirement he has devoted himself almost entirely to the promotion of efficiency in Sunday Schools, and is the Minister of Education (No. 49) there is a reference to the invaluable service of Mr. Thomas Harding,

I.S.O., whose experience and untiring intelligence have been given to the Officers and Teachers in various parts of the Connection have been greatly appreciated. The Connection is indebted to Mr. Harding for his valuable and self-sacrificing labours. And if it is the judgment of the Conference, the verdict of the average Teacher after hearing him has been, "He doesn't send you home as some of these great experts do, thinking in your despair you can never catch up. No, he clears you up and makes you think 'Why it's so simple, even I could do that.'"

This year's meeting was held at both and at the afternoon meeting there was an unusually large gathering of workers from the various Schools in the Union.

The meeting was opened by the president,

Mr. Harding, who said that the purpose of the meeting was to consider the work of the various Schools in the Union.

The Rev. J. A. Allen, of the Wesleyan

School, said that the purpose of the meeting was to consider the work of

A SUCCESSFUL AMBULANCE.

At a meeting of the Hunslet Committee it was decided that six men should be purchased for the old man's day room. The matter of procurement for the centre of the old people's bedrooms was further considered as a reference from the Board.

It was proposed by Mr. Shaw that having again considered the matter this Committee and confirm the same. The matter was discussed by Mr. Lawson and carried unanimously.

The Clerk reported that no reply had been received from Mr. Macdonald in reference to the matter of the
